chain AND anchors

1958

Foreword

The school year of 1958 is ending and for all of us it has been a year we shall never forget. For the seniors, it marks the end of high school days, and for the underclassmen it is one step closer to their graduation.

We, the Staff of the 1958 CHAIN AND ANCHORS, hope this yearbook will serve as a reminder of all the good times we have had at Fairfax Hall. If it reminds you of all the little things that made 1958 so wonderful for all of us, we shall consider ours a job well done.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS

We, the Senior Class of 1958, do hereby publish this, our Last Will and Testament.

I, ANDREA BACON, being of biological mind, leave to Becky Dean my intelligence for this course, and to Mary McNeel give the affidavits for Penn garbage lot, better known as Texas.

I, KATURAH BACON, being of sound body and mind (?), do hereby will my ability to float to any poor soul who wants to learn how to swim.

I, JO ANN BARRON, being of sound body and mixed-up mind, will to Ann Lambert my Cow-Eyes.

I, MARY BETH BEACH, being of unsound mind and broken body, do hereby will my ability to ride the wildest horses to Jocie Brown.

I, JUDY BELT, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to Judy Sanford my ability to say "Poor Baby" with a resounding note of pity in my voice.

I, LYNDA BRYAN, being of no body and some mind, leave my love for Kentucky to all loyal Kentuckians who will be here next year.

I, ALICE BRIZDLE, being of sound mind and small body (some day I hope), do hereby will to any underclassmen, all the wonderful trouble I have had with Capital Airlines.

I, PAT CARR, being of feeble mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my athletic ability to Ann Lambert in hopes that some day she may get enough points to become a member of the Athletic Association.

I, MARCIA COHEN, being of no mind and all body, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to lose weight to Teri Everhart.

I, JULIE COURTNEY, being of fractured mind and broken knees, do hereby will and bequeath my love for hockey to Margaret Holmes in hopes that she will continue in the same spirit.

I, ZANNIE DOWLING, being of Georgian soul, do hereby will and bequeath my love for the great state of Georgia to Bunky Witham, and never forget, Bunky, "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

I, PAT DIMAURO, do hereby leave my Saturday night telephone calls and my love for Basic Methodist Church to Joan Smith in the hopes that she may be inspired by both.

I, ELIZABETH DUERSON, being only reasonably sure of mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my quiet ways to Dee Dee Nash and to Betsy Gibson my fond memories of F. M. S.

I, SUE EDMONDSON, being of small body and a mixed-up mind, do will and bequeath my ability to sing "I've Got a Crush on You," to Tref Deering, and I do hereby leave Betty Spriggs.

I, SUSANN EVANS, being of a half-sound body and confused mind, do will and bequeath my athletic ability to Julie Ransom.

I, MIMI FLYNN, being of confused mind and body, do hereby will my ability to stay out of trouble, in every sense of the word, to Karen Schoenborn.

I, SANDY FULLINGTON, being of sound mind and water-logged body, will my ability to swim to Ann Lambert and my eyes to Judy Trevillian.

I, KAY GARDNER, do hereby will and bequeath my good-looking football legs to Elyce Wilgus, in hopes that she will carefully develop her muscles. Also to Ann Wilson, I leave my ability to stay campused for six months out of a year.

I, JUDI GEARHART, being from the land of the sun and the sea, do hereby will my great love of the Navy to Pattie Boyland in hopes that she will grow to love it as much as I do.

I, SUSAN GOLDSTEIN, being of weak body and confused mind, do hereby will and bequeath all my interesting (?) memories of two years of basketball games to Mary Cecil Lawter. It is my high hope that she will learn the finer arts of cheerleading and snowball throwing.

I, NANCY GUTHRIE, being a true Confederate at heart, do hereby will my jar of peanut butter to all the peanut butter and jelly sandwich eaters in hopes that they have grape jelly instead of strawberry next year, Betsy especially.

I, ANNE HEANER, do hereby bequeath to Charlotte Williams all my talents (?) for keeping the boy at Fishburne from knowing about the boy back home. I hope she has better luck than I did!

I, JUNE HOCHWALD, hereby leave to Tempa Hughes, Pat Chester, Barde Ensign, and Wendy Kehl, my love for playing bridge.

I, CAROLYN KEISTER, not so sure of being, do will and bequeath all V. M. I. cadets, (one in particular) and all week-ends of 1958-1959 at that institution to Terry Walker.

I, MARTY LARCOMBE, being of a "tangled mind" do hereby will my love for "Freestate" and hillbilly music to Patricia "Skip" Chester and my love for the South to all up and coming rebels.

I, SHEILA MACFARLANE, being of no mind, do leave to Joan Bennett, because of her many compliments, my ability to study constantly and like it, my weakness for green eyes to Patricia Chester and my "problems" to Peggy Chalmers.

I, CAROLYN MERRILL, do hereby will the look of "those innocent eyes" to Ann Wilson, in hopes that they will bring her luck with those Kentucky boys.

I, SHARON MCCOY, being a true Southerner from Alabama, leave my great love for Auburn and "the heart of Dixie" to all the unfortunate Yankees who have never had the privilege of going there.

I, DOTTIE NELSON, being of no mind and tired body, do hereby will and bequeath my love for "Charles of the Ritz" to Tempa Hughes whose eyebrows are anxiously awaiting this, and my love for the "little tin soldiers" of F. M. S. to all who may fall for them as hard as I.

I, NELDA NORDBERG, having too big a head for my body, do will and bequeath to Dee Dee Nash my ability not to worry!

I, BARBARA PAGE, being of sound mind and measled body, do hereby bequeath my great "love" for A. M. A. to Judy Sanford, Frances Bostwick, Martha Cooper and the rest of the A. M. A. hags in hopes that they will carry on the tradition!!

I, LOREN PHIPPS, being of no mind and too much body, will my exotic singing voice to Karen Schoenborn.

I, FAY ANN PLIESCOTT, being of no mind and all body, do will and bequeath my name, "Squirrel," to any underclassmen worthy of it and to Riggs, I leave my ability to gain weight, and to Karen Shreiner, my ability to do portraits.

I, KAY ROTHSCHILD, being of little mind and all body, do hereby leave my love and "good luck" with the Fishburne basketball team to anyone dumb enough to want this, and my great love for the state of West Virginia to all fellow mountaineers.

I, KATY SHERIDAN, barely being, do will and bequeath all the Salems in the school to Jocie Brown, and my place at the bridge table to Judy Sanford.

I, BONNYCASTLE SMITH, do hereby bequeath to Miss Judy Wentz my ability to play bridge.

I, PAT TERRY, being of all body and no mind, do hereby will and bequeath my many sadistic tendencies to Stephanie Seelinger in hopes that she might get the opportunity to carry them out next year.

I, ANN TODD, do hereby will and bequeath my ability in all sports, especially tennis, to Julie Ransom, and my well-used bottle of "Old Spice" to Margaret Holmes.

I, BIRDIE WHITELEY, being of feeble mind and unsound body, do hereby will and bequeath my room to Georgia Cross and Judy Sanford, in hopes that they will keep it in the same neat and orderly condition next year as it was this year.

I, JOANNE WICKE, being of some unknown something, do hereby will to Shirley Gray my ability to resist urges to make fun of people who dance in the Rec. Room.

I, GRETCHEN VAN AKEN, do hereby bequeath a credit card for "Van Aken's Convenient Lay-Away Plan" to anyone who wishes to take advantage of it in the future.

I, DIANE YEATMAN, leave my love for the best college in the state of Virginia, U. Va., to Terry Walker, in hopes that she will some day realize this fact.

I, MARY ZELENZ, better known as "The Wallflower," leave my place by the wall to Georgia Cross and sincerely hope that she will uphold this position as I have.

THE SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

As the hot sands of Arabia burn under my feet I stand outside the window of the king's harem. Peering inside, I see Pat Terry, chief wife of the harem, explaining to the king what people are like in America. What's that book she's showing him? Chain and Anchors '58. Oh, now I see, she's using her senior class to explain to the king about Americans. She's so wrapped up in memories that I find myself fading into the pictures of the annual with her. . . . .

It's twenty years later—1978 — Andy Bacon is now owner of the world-famous Andrea Perot Dress Shop and the proud mother of five children. The next photograph is of Katurah Bacon who has just been the first to swim the English Channel singing "The Star Spangled Banner." Oh yes, there's Jo Ann Barron at Hialeah Race Track. Wonder which horse won today? Mary Beth Beach is in another wedding—heaven knows, before long she'll be too busy for her own. Let's see, she's turning the page—Judy Belt—last I heard she was President of a soft drink bottling company. Alice Brizdle just left me. She's touring Europe. There's Lynda Bryan settled down with Jim in the hills of Kentucky. The last picture on that page is Pat Carr, now sometimes called a second Einstein by the U. S. A. F.

Marcia Cohen is now a resident of Hawaii and can be found sunning under the palms almost every day. Under Marcia's picture is Julie Courtney's. The day I left the states she had just been appointed the head doctor at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Next is Pat DiMauro, now a consul to France—Parlez-vous francais? Zannie Dowling has just given her home to the Georgia Chapter of SAE for their new fraternity house.

Elizabeth Duerson is next and, from the latest rumor, she's having a grand time on her cruise around the world. Sue Edmondson—oh yes, the first woman ever to be admitted to the Naval Hall of Fame. Next is Susie Evans whose picture can be seen on the cover of most of the current magazines. Mimi Flynn is known throughout the U. S. as the owner of the famous show horse, Flanco's Fatal Fascination. Sandy Fullington's jolly humor is known world wide today for she's training the U. S. Olympic Basketball team.

Again she turns the page and there's Kay Gardner who is now secretary to the Governor of Virginia. Judi Gearhart and her John are now quite happy living a navy life. Susie Goldstein is now away from Georgia and has taken residence in the big city—New York! Last on that page is Nancy Guthrie who can be found almost any day in the blue skies flying her plane.

There's Anne Heaner who has just recently joined Marcia in Hawaii and is now teaching hula dancing. Under Anne's picture is one of June Hochwald, the proud owner of one of the best beauty salons in America. Carolyn Keister heads the next page, and well she should, for she heads the sports column in each morning's paper. Marty Larcombe is now in the process of publishing a lovely pamphlet for America's Lonely Hearts from Warrenton, Va. The next photograph is of Sheila Macfarlane now quite well-known in Havana, Cuba. As the page turns, there is Sharon McCoy who can be found in the Heart of Dixie, Birmingham, Alabama, now a married woman, but still a staunch supporter of Auburn. Carolyn Merrill's picture is next. She can usually be found somewhere on the V. M. I. campus, as she is married to the commandant.

Pat again turns the page and Dottie Nelson smiles forth. I hear she's just received a patent on a liquid product called "Your Eyebrows from a Bottle." Nelda Nordberg, so I hear, has returned to the land of her ancestors —Sweden. Can you ski yet, Ned? Barbara Page is still in sunny Florida. Spends most of her time riding I understand. Loren Phipps our Home-Ec. gal has now become President of the Betty Crocker Company. Fay Pliescott is one of the best shots in the country and I'll bet she can out-fish anyone of us, too. The next picture is of Kay Rothschild. I understand that she's following the basketball schedule quite closely this year. Next is Katy Sheridan. Poor Mr. Sheridan was done out of his job on Good Housekeeping by his daughter just last week. Bonnycastle Smith is still down in Panama counting the ships as they go through the canal. Ann Todd has just won the title of "World's Champion Tennis Player." Gretchen Van Aken is the top picture on the next page and, in case you're wondering where she is now, just go to your local theater and look toward the screen. Turning the page, there is Elaine Whiteley way up in New Jersey, water-skiing every weekend. Joanne Wicke can be found in Hollywood designing sets for the latest movies. Next is Diane Yeatman who graduated from Duke Nursing School some years ago. Well, here is the last picture—Mary Zelenz, who is now a nurse in Yankee Land.

The present slowly returns as the king settles back and Pat closes the annual. She seems to realize that the years have changed our classmates, but for us the year 1958 will never change for our memories will go on forever.

SONGS AND YELLS

Warriors, from the halls of Fairfax,
Warriors, from the halls of Fairfax,
Come to beat———————
We're the best team of all.
Warriors, from the halls of Fairfax,
Warriors, from the halls of Fairfax,
Heap big Indian scouts
Gonna beat———————.

I zing-a zing-a zing-a zing-a
I zing-a zing-a zing-a zay
I zing-a zing-a zing-a zing-a
I zing-a zing-a zing-a zay
Push 'em back, you Fairfax warriors,
Push 'em back, you Fairfax chiefs, chiefs, chiefs, chiefs.

The team was in a huddle,
The captain lowered her head,
They all got together
And this is what they said:
"You gotta F-I-G-H-T,
You gotta F-I-G-H-T,
You gotta F-I-G-H-T,
You gotta fight with all your might,
You gotta fight, team, fight!"

THE IMPRINT OF PRIDE

PRINTING is the great constructive force of the modern civilized world. It plays the indispensable part in the dissemination of news, in the expression and progression of political ideals, in the records and exchange of commerce and industry. It democratizes education, science, art, music —and broadens the scope of everything it touches. ¶To appreciate its high place in the esteem of an enlightened world, PRINTING MUST BE WELL DONE. Our offering to the cause of BETTER PRINTING is REPRESENTED IN THIS ANNUAL
